(b) THE PARABLE OF THE UNFORGIVEN SERVANT

- Jesus said the Kingdom of Heaven will be like a certain king who wanted to check accounts with his servants
- While checking the account, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents
- Because he could not pay, his lord recommended him to be sold with his family and all that he had and payment to be made.
- The servant fell down and kneeled before his lord, and said “lord, have patience with me and I will repay you”
- The lord of the servant had mercy for him and so set him free and forgave him his debt
- However, the servant who was forgiven, went out and found his fellow servant who owed him.
- He gripped him and took him by the throat and said, “Pay me what you owe”?
- His friend servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will pay you’
- He would not but went and cast him into prison until he should pay back the money
- When other servants saw what happened, they became sorry and reported the incidence to their lord
- Then their lord called the unforgiving servant and said to him, ‘you wicked servant’ I forgave you all your debt, because you begged me.
- You should have had mercy on your fellow servant as I had mercy on you
- His lord became angry and handed him over to the bullies, until he should pay all that was due to him.
